At the Council Chamber Whitehall, Oct. 12. 1714.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Montague Earl of Abingdon, Hugh Earl of Cholmondeley, Treaſurer of his Majeſty's Houſhold. Hugh Boſcawen, Eſq; Comptroller of his Majeſty's Houſhold, and Sir Richard Onſlow, Bart. Chancellor and under Treaſurer of the Exchequer, were Sworn of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, and took their reſpective Places at the Board accordingly.

JOHN POVEY.

At the Court at St. James's, October 14. 1714.

PRESENT

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

This Day, by his Majeſty's Command, the Right Honourable Heneage Lord Guernzey was Sworn one of the Lords of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, and alſo Chancellor of the Dutchy and County Palatine of Lancaſter, and took his Place at the Board.

JOHN POVEY.

St. James's, October 15.

The following humble Addreſs from the Judges, Advocates, and Proctors of Doctors Commons, was preſented to his Majeſty by Dr. Betteſworth, Dean of the Arches; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, his Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State.

May it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE the Judges and Advocates, Profeſſors of the Civil and Eccleſiaſtical Laws, and Proctors exercent in thoſe Courts, do moſt humbly approach your Royal Preſence heartily Congratulating your Majeſty's happy and peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne, and ſafe Arrival in theſe your Kingdoms.

Nothing could have ſupported us under the unſpeakable Loſs we have ſuſtain'd by the Death of our late moſt Excellent Sovereign, but the immediate Succeſſion of a Prince whoſe Royal Virtues, and declared Affection to our Conſtitution in Church and State, give us the greateſt Aſſurance of becoming under his Government a happy and flouriſhing People.

As the Laws we profeſs and practiſe inſtruct us in the Principles of Loyalty and Obedience, ſo it ſhall be our conſtant Study inviolably to preſerve our Duty and Fidelity to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Iſſue, to defend your Majeſty's Supremacy, to maintain your Eccleſiaſtical and Maritime Laws, to aſſert your Sovereignty of the Sea, and to Support your Majeſty's Crown and Dignity among all Nations; and we humbly hope for your Majeſty's Favour and Incouragement in this our Profeſſion and Study.

May the Great God grant your Majeſty a long and happy Reign over this Church and State.

Rome,

Rome, Sept. 25. N. S. The 28th paſt, the Emperor's Ambaſſador, Count Gallas, celebrated his Imperial Majeſty's Birth-day by a Magnificent Entertainment; the Square of Sant Apoſtoli, and all the Front of his Palace were illuminated with Torches of white Wax, and an Amphitheatre was erected for the Muſick, which was performed by the moſt excellent Voices, with all ſorts of Inſtruments. The Count having invited the Cardinals, and the principal Nobility and Ladies of this Court, their number was too great for the Palace to hold them all conveniently, and therefore Seats were raiſed along the whole Front of the Palace, and were covered and adorned very Splendidly. After the Muſick, the numerous Company were ſerved with plenty of Fruits, Sweetmeats, and Liquors; and then they removed to a Ball which laſted all Night. A Congregation of divers Cardinals and Prelates was lately held, to examine whether there might be any Danger in executing a Grant made to the Prince of Caſerta, of leave to fell the Woods of Ciſterna; which is conteſted with him, tho' he has actually contracted with Undertakers, who are to give him four hundred and fifty thouſand Crowns. The Opinions were different; ſome arguing, that as the Malignity of the Air when the Wind is long at South, which occaſions Diſtempers here, proceeds (as is vulgarly and traditionally believed) from the felling of certain Woods in the Pontificate of Sixtus V. which ſheltred the City from that Wind; ſo the like Effects are to be feared, ſhould thoſe of Ciſterna (which ſtand South of this City) be cut down: Others were of a contrary Judgment, and ſo nothing was concluded, but the Matter was referred to further Examination. The number of the Inhabitants of this City was lately taken by order of the Government, and they were found to amount to one hundred forty three thouſand and odd hundred Souls. Some Overture has been made for putting an end to the long Conteſts with the Neapolitans, about the Nomination to Benefices, and the aſſigning Penſions out of the Eccleſiaſtical Revenues in that Kingdom, which the Neapolitans aſſert ought not to be beſtowed on any but Natives of the Country; and that all Foreigners are unqualified to poſſeſs them under any Pretext. The Expedient propos'd is, that the Neapolitans ſhould preſent a Petition to the Pope, in which they ſhould ask of him as a Favour, what they pretend to be common Right, and a part of their Liberties. In the mean while the Sees of Satriano, Melfi, and Catanzaro in the Kingdom of Naples, having been long vacant, the Pope named three Neapolitans to thoſe Biſhopricks the 17th Inſtant. The Duke of Parma has given the Cardinal Acquaviva the full and free uſe of the Palace Farneſe, during his Life. A Courier diſpatched from Parma by Cardinal Gozzadini, has brought an Account, that he having given the Benediction to the Queen of Spain, and finiſhed all he had to do as Legate à Latere, has laid down that Character. We have advice that the Emperor has nominated Count Borromeo for his Vicar in Italy.

Madrid, October 1. N. S. The 27th of laſt Month the King came from the Palace of Pardo to the Church of our Lady of Atocha, where Te Deum was ſung in Preſence of the Grandees who had been invited thither, in Thankſgiving for the taking of Barcelona, and of the happy Iſſue of the War in Catalonia, where all is now perfectly quiet, ſome Troops of Miquelets and Volunteers, who were the laſt that kept the Field and committed great Diſorders, having ſeparated, delivered up their Arms, and retired to their Habitations. We have Advice, that the Officers of the Queen's Houſhold arriving at Valencia, received Orders ſoon after to go to Alicant, becauſe that Port is more ſafe and commodious for her Majeſty's Landing than Vinaroz, which was firſt choſen. However, the Inhabitants of Valencia having made great Preparations for her Reception, they have ſent Deputies to the King, to deſire him to allow of her Majeſty's paſſing through this City, where they have fitted up the Count de Parſent's Houſe for her to lodge in. An extraordinary Courier is arrived from Parma, with an Account of the Queen's being on her Departure from thence for Seſtri di Levante, and that the Squadron commanded by General Don Andrez de Pez, who is to bring her to Spain, arrived at Genoa the 19th of September. The King for celebrating this News, has ordered Mourning to be laid aſide, and Illuminations to be made four Nights ſucceſſively throughout this City.

Genoa, October 9. N. S. The 6th Inſtant in the Morning came into this Port the Milford a Britiſh Man of War, Captain Goodall Commander, and ſailed again that Afternoon for Leghorne and Meſſina. He came eleven Days before from Port-Mahon, where he left Sir James Wiſhart, who we hear has ordered all the King of Great Britain's Ships in theſe Parts to repair to him at Port-Mahon. His ſaid Majeſty's Ships Romney and Kinſale continue here, but will ſhortly put to Sea for Port-Mahon. The Queen of Spain, who arrived here the 30th paſt, was ſo much incommoded by the ſhort Voyage from Seſtri di Levante hither, that after her landing ſhe had ſome Symptoms of a Feaver, but it paſs'd off: She was conducted to San-Pier d'Arena by Ambaſſadors nominated by this Republick to receive and compliment her on her Arrival, and during her Stay a Regiment in the Service of this State kept Guard at the Palace in which ſhe lodged. Cardinal Acquaviva, the Marquiſs de los Balbaſes, the Duke de Turſis, the Marquiſs de Villamajor, the Princeſſes of Piombino and Pio, with other Perſons of Quality, came with her hither; but while ſhe was at San-Pier d'Arena ſhe choſe to keep wholly incognito, and excuſed her ſelf from admitting any Viſits from the Ladies of this City. To Day her Majeſty proceeded from hence by Land, the Cannon round the City making a triple Diſcharge at her Departure, as they had done at her Reception. The ſix Men of War and two Gallies which came from Spain to fetch her, and the Duke de Turſis's ſix Gallies, put off at the ſame time, and are to keep along the Shore till ſhe comes to the King of Sicily's Dominions, when ('tis ſaid) they are to take her on Board, and to land her again on the neareſt Territories of France; and then they are to make to Toulon, there to wait her Majeſty's Reſolution whether ſhe will take her way from thence by Sea or Land.

Hambourg, Oct. 16. N. S. The Emperor has written a Letter to the King of Denmark, in which he earneſtly Deſires him to reſtore Duke Charles Frederick of Holſtein to his Dominions, which are dependant on the Empire; intimating, That if his Daniſh Majeſty has any Cauſe of Complaint againſt the Conduct of the Duke-Adminiſtrator and and his Miniſters, he may uſe proper Means to procure Satisfaction. In the ſame Letter, his Imperial Majeſty preſſes the King of Denmark to withdraw his Troops which are now quartered in the Villages belonging to Lubeck. Major General Baſſewitz has ſollicited the Biſhop of Munſter to grant the Swediſh Troops from Deux-Ponts, Paſſage to Pomerania, but has been refuſed. 'Tis adviſed from Poland, That the Nobility of the Palatinate of Sendomir, had met at a Rendezvous in order to mount on Horſeback, but had ſeparated without attempting any Commotion. Letters from Petersbourg of the 28th of September relate, That the 19th the Czariſſa his Czarian Majeſty's Conſort, was brought to Bed of a Princeſs. The Ruſſian Fleet which returned with the Czar to Cronſlot, is to Winter there; 7 other Ships of the Line, and 3 Frigates of the Czar's, are at Revel.

Paris, Oct. 20. N. S. The Accounts publiſhed here by Authority of the Duke of Berwick's Proceedings ſince the taking of Barcelona, confirm, That the 16 Battallions which he has put into that Town, are not only lodged for their greater Security in the Monaſteries, but thoſe Monaſteries are fortifying with Palliſades; adding, that new Batteries were raiſing on the Ramparts and turned towards the Town to command it. Sig. del Poal and his Brother were in Cardona when it ſurrendred on Capitulation, by which the Inhabitants were aſſured of their Lives, and of the free and peaceable Poſſeſſion of their Eſtates and Effects; but thoſe two Brothers not thinking it ſafe to rely on that Capitulation, and attempting to make their Eſcape by Sea, were ſtopped, and put under Arreſt at Arens de Mar. The other 14 Chief Leaders of the Barcelonians, whom the Marſhal Berwick cauſed to be ſeized the 22d of September, were carried by a Guard of Granadiers, and put aboard a Man of War lying in the Road of Barcelona, which the Night between the 24th and 25th ſailed for Alicant, where theſe Priſoners are to be kept ſeparate from each other. Monſieur de Tourriel one of the Forty of the French Academy, died here the 11th of this Month.

Hague, October 23. N. S. On Saturday the 20th Inſtant the Princeſs of Wales being informed by the Earl of Berkeley, that the Wind was come to the North East, Orders were immediately given for the getting all in readineſs for her Royal Highneſs's Departure that Afternoon. Her Highneſs, after having received the Compliments of the Duke d'Oſſuna, as well as of the other Foreign Miniſters, and Perſons of Diſtinction, ſet out about five a Clock for Rotterdam in a Yacht of the States of Holland, accompanied by the Earl of Albemarle, and the reſt of the Deputies of this Province; as likewiſe by the Count of Hanau, and the Counteſs her Highneſs's Siſter, Prince William of Heſſe, and the Prince of Anhalt-Koeten, who came lately hither to meet her Highneſs. The Earl of Strafford accompanied her Highneſs likewiſe part of the way to Rotterdam where her Highneſs being arrived, imbarked immediately on the Mary Yacht, and ſailed at three a-Clock the next Morning. On Sunday about Noon the Yacht got to Sea, and joined the Squadron of Men of War appointed to Convoy her Highneſs. The States of Holland and Weſt Friefeland have ordered another Lottery of ſix Millions of Florins at twenty five Guilders a Ticket: It is to be drawn on the 3d of June 1715; and in order to encourage it, they have forbid all private Lotteries. There are five Blanks to one Prize, and ſixteen per Cent. is to be abated out of all the Prizes. Baron Heems, the Imperial Miniſter, being returned from Antwerp, was in Conference the 21ſt with the Deputies of the States General.

London, October 15. The Princeſs of Wales, with the two eldeſt Princeſſes her Daughters, landed at Margate laſt Monday Night. Her Royal Highneſs was met by the Prince on Tueſday beyond Rocheſter. Their Royal Highneſſes lay at Rocheſter that Night; and on Wedneſday in the Afternoon they paſſed through this City to St. James's, all in perfect Health. The Tower Guns fired as they came over the Bridge, and thoſe in the Park when they alighted at St. James's. And at Night there were Illuminations and Bonfires, with all other publick Demonſtrations of Joy.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to ſign a Commiſſion for Lieutenant-General William Cadogan to be Colonel of the ſecond Regiment of Foot Guards.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Peter Meyer, Eſq;.

St. James's, October 15. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to direct Letters Patents to paſs the Great Seal of Great Britain, for creating James Lord Chandos Earl of Caernarvon.

Lewis Lord Rockingham, Baron of Throwley in the County of Kent, Viſcount Sondes of Lees-Court in the ſame County, and Earl of Rockingham.

Charles Lord Offulſton, an Earl.

Charles Lord Halifax, Viſcount Sunbury in the County of Middleſex, and Earl of Halifax.

Heneage Lord Gernſey, Earl of Aylesford in the County of Kent.
